HISTORY OF EVENT

As Western Australia's longest-standing and most beloved community fun run, the Chevron City to Surf for Activ has a long and proud history. Commencing with the 4km and 12km routes, and a mere 500 participants in 1975, it has since evolved into a hallmark on the WA sports calendar, with nearly 50,000 participants at its peak in 2013.

Beyond it being a drawcard to fitness fanatics and families, the Chevron City to Surf for Activ carries a profound philanthropic mission. It stands as Activ's premier annual fundraiser, the proceeds of which are devoted to supporting thousands of individuals living with disability to Live, Learn, and Work with confidence.
